

Play with Me, 1962, Weston Woods Studios, 1962

This filmstrip and record set presents the story of a lonesome little girl searching for a playmate. She attempts to interact with a number of animals in her neighborhood but only succeeds in frightening each one away. She realizes that her pursuit of them is the cause of their avoidance and decides to be patient and sensitive. Her patience pays off as the animals return to provide her company and enjoyment. The filmstrip is not captioned though a script is provided. An accompanying record narrates the whole story. MAG, 7-75.
